Key Findings:

📈 Revenue remained relatively stable across 2023–2025, with periodic peaks observed in May 2023 and June 2024.

🪑 Chair and Printer generated the highest product revenue contribution (~195K each).

💳 Credit Card and Online payments slightly outperformed other payment methods, although revenue distribution was relatively balanced.

📱 Instagram and Email were the strongest acquisition channels, contributing the highest referral revenue.

Recommendations:

- Prioritize inventory planning for top-performing products (Chair and Printer).
- Strengthen digital acquisition channels, especially Instagram and Email campaigns.
- Investigate the drivers behind revenue peaks to replicate successful sales periods.
